The committee appointed to audit the Treasurer's books and make the proper disbursement of the interest accruing on the bequest of James Moorman, makes the following report. We, the committee appointed to settle with the Treasurer, have examined his books and accounts and find them correct. He has received the two thousand dollars ($2000.00) bequested to the Meeting by the Will of the late James Moorman, and has loaned on mortgage security as directed by said Will and we think it a safe loan. He has received one hundred and sixty dollars ($160.00) as the past year's interest on that fund. We have drawn seventy five dollars ($75.00) of that amount and paid it to our own ministers to aid them in their ministerial labors within the limits of the Meeting, leaving a balance in his hands of eighty five dollars ($85.00) to be used as the Meeting may hereafter direct.

Queries from the 1878 Indiana Yearly Meeting Faith and Practice:

1. Are your Meetings for Worship and Discipline regularly held, and are they well and punctually attended?
2. Do Friends, in their intercourse amongst men, give evidence that they are imbued with the love of Christ? Do they instruct their children in the principles of the Christian religion, and bring them up to habits of industry and simplicity; and are they encouraged to the reading and study of the Holy Scriptures?
3. Are Friends careful in regard to contracting debts and other engagements, so that no discredit or reproach may occur for want of promptness in complying with the same; and are Friends careful of the reputation of others in every respect?
4. When any of our members are overtaken in a fault, are timely measures taken to restore them in the spirit of meekness and love?
